

To Whom It May Concern:

As an Account Executive at Brandmovers, I have had the pleasure of knowing and working with Eric Stewart for the last year and a half. He has been a tremendous colleague and a true asset to our development department. I would like to take this opportunity to recommend him to any employer looking for an extremely talented and confident programmer/manager.

During his time with Brandmovers, Eric has consistently demonstrated a strong work ethic and dedication to success. His efforts repeatedly produced high quality work for a variety of satisfied clients. Eric is a natural leader and is extremely effective in this role. I both admired and respect him for his skill and expertise.

It is for these reasons that I offer high recommendations for Eric without reservation. I am confident that, if selected for a position with your organization, he would provide the same high level of service and commitment. If you have any questions regarding this recommendation, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Derek Paetau
